5 Nights/6 Days
Delhi/Agra/Jaipur

The golden Triangle tour of India is the most sought after tour in any travellers' itinerary while planning a visit to India. This famous tour offers the glimpses of Indian ancient history and modern magnificence of the capital city of India - New Delhi. New Delhi not only reflects the legacy the British left behind but also of the glorious Mughal era. One can witness the love of an emperor for his beloved wife etched in white marble at the famous "Taj Mahal" in Agra. A visit to Agra is like a "Romance with the past". You can not miss the vibrancy and colour of Jaipur, also known as the "Pink City" during this trip. It is surrounded by hill topped rugged fortress and dotted with fairy tale palaces.

India has a rich diversity of culture and tradition, dominated by religious and spiritual themes. It's probably the only country where people of so many different origins, religious beliefs, languages and ethnic background coexist. There are 3 main sub-cultures: North, East and South. Most of the ancient Indian culture is preserved in the South which is famous for its classical arts, such as Carnatic music and classical Indian Dance.
